. . HEADQUARTERS For ... Santa Claus!!

Christmas is the one time of all the year when the spirit of giving comes into every heart. And then comes the question, where to go to find the largest stock from which to make the best selection. This is quickly answered—ORMES.

He has one of the finest Drug Stores to be found in any Second-Class Postoffice town in Kentucky, and his beautiful stock is in accord with the surroundings. Every article has been carefully selected and is calculated to please you and, that his beautiful store is full of busy, anxious buyers every day, is evidence of its attractiveness. And in every instance everybody is well pleased with what they buy.

JAS. H. ORME.

The whole center of his big store is filled with Books, of every description, from the cheapest to the most costly, from the pen of every known author in the world. You should see them.

His show cases, well filled with beautifully decorated Japanese wares, of every description and design and the numberless other articles of wealth and beauty, makes it plain indeed why Santa Claus has made it his headquarters.

The largest and handsomest assortment of Teddy Bears ever brought to Marion.

Every thing in Toilet articles, Perfumes, Fine Soaps, Ornaments etc. If ORME hasn't got what you want for a beautiful Christmas gift, you simply can't be suited.

PROPOSED CREAMERY FOR MARION.

The J. E. Crider Creamery Company Propose to Start One If Proper Inducements Are Offered.

The J. E. Crider Creamery Company, of Fredonia, Ky., have expressed a willingness to start a creamery here if the farmers will contract to furnish them milk from five hundred cows. They have made a decided success of the project at Fredonia in so much that they are unable to keep pace with their orders.

If they should be encouraged by the people of Marion by the gift of a lot for their plant and exempt from taxation for a reasonable period, it will prove of untold value to Marion and the farmers of Crittenden county. This company proposes to pay the farmers for their milk in one cent of the price paid by Evansville, which after the expressage is paid, would mean a great deal more than Evansville prices.

This is not mere idle talk, but a business proposition coming straight from business men. They mean every word they have authorised us to say and if you desire to be further instructed call at the Record-Press office or see Estew Bros.

ABSOLUTELY WITH IT WARNING GAME

The Explosion Which Wrecked the Mine and Converted It Into a Living Tomb

CLAY, Ky., Dec. 13.—After thirty hours' desperate struggle, the rescuing party searching the Baker mine at Clay for the bodies of the seven entombed miners, returned with them last night. The bodies were not disfigured and had not been reached by the fire. Indications are that the men were overcome by gas. They were found pretty far back in the workings, as if, after hearing the first explosion, the men had run in search of a place of safety. The rescue party was headed by T. J. Norwood, state mine inspector, and Thos. Long, a deputy. The inquest will be held to-day. The coffins were already at the mine and preparation had already been made for the funeral.

Just before the explosion eighty of the men had come out, it being Saturday and pay day, else the loss of life would have been terrible.

These mines, including several others at Wheaten and Sturgis, with offices at Sturgis and headquarters at New York, who have prided themselves on having the safest mines with fewest accidents.

In fact this is the first accident they have had, and it from causes unheard of in the history of the oldest experienced miner.

The explosion is the harder to account for from the fact that it occurred in No. 9, which is more than one hundred feet below the No. 11 vein, where the seven men met death, and having been abandoned, was full of water. It was in this flooded mine that this strange but fearful explosion took place.

The first thing wrong noticed at the top of the mine was in the boiler house when engineer Williams noticed that the engine was "creeping." He called to his fireman to shut the engine down. The fireman was unable to do anything with it and the engineer started over to help him, when the column of water shot out of the shaft and toppled over against their building. There was a tremor of the earth, a quivering of all the timbers of the shaft, the sound of rushing waters, and suddenly there appeared above the surface a mighty column of water, carrying its burden of timbers, coal and ordinary debris of a mine. Straight towards the sky shot the great column of water—up, up until more than a hundred feet it towered—towered for only the fraction of a second when it divided into two parts; one part falling over to the southwest, striking the boiler house, full sixty feet away, moving it from its foundation. The other column spent its force in the opposite direction with less destructive property in its path. The water in its mad rush made a complete wreck of the mine.

The news of the fearful disaster was phoned Superintendent W. B. Cunningham's office at Sturgis and forth with he loaded up many things he knew would be needed and with a fearless crew hoisted one of their big engines and in a very short time was at the scene of the disaster and foremost in the brave effort to save the men entombed. But they were doomed.

The groom is a prosperous young farmer of the Oak Hill vicinity. The bride is one of Crooked Creek's most charming young ladies. May this union be one of happiness and property.

NOTICE TO THE STEMMING DISTRICT ASSOCIATION.

From W. R. Rankin, Member of The District Board for the County of Crittenden,

THE WOOL GROWERS OF FAX COUNTY

Are Requested To Meet In Their Respective County Seats On Saturday, December 18th.

The District Board of the Stemming District Tobacco Association has sold all of the Association's tobacco in Crittenden County to W. G. Head & Son, of Madisonville Ky., to be delivered at the Jarvis factory in Marion, Kentucky.

In order to make this sale it was agreed that the purchasers of this tobacco should receive all tobacco already stripped in large hands, as stripped, but in regard to that part of the crop not already stripped, it was agreed that the same should be tied in medium sized hands, and it is necessary for good members to faithfully and cheerfully aid the District Board in carrying out the terms of the contract, and we think all good members will cheerfully abide by this provision of the terms of the sale.

Messrs. Head & Son will open their factory for the reception of tobacco on Tuesday, December 14th, and receive up to and including the 23rd, when the factory will be closed till January 4th, 1910, when it will again be opened to receive tobacco, and it is hoped that it will not again be necessary to close down till all the crop has been delivered.

Let us again urge good members to do all they can to deliver this crop in good condition and according to contract.

Respectfully,
W. B. RANKIN,
Member District Board Crittenden County.

The time for the annual wool clip is not over four months off. Heretofore, with the exception of a few local pools, we have sold our wool separately and have permitted three or four middle men to make each from one to three cents per pound from its sale, thereby, losing us not less than five cents per pound. There are from ten to fifteen million pounds of wool clipped annually in this State and if it were pooled and sold direct to the manufacturer it would cost him no more and save our farmers not less than a half million dollars annually.

To effect this saving we must have a well organised pool and to handle the 1910 wool crop we have no time to lose in perfecting this organization. It is proposed to organize the Kentucky Wool Growers Association under the laws of Kentucky which permit farmers to pool their crops and to be ready for business by the first day of January, 1910.

All wool growers are urgently invited to meet at the court house in Young-Starkey.

At the residence of I. N. Young near Wellsford, Kan., their only daughter, Miss Fannie, and John W. Starkey were united in marriage. A large number of relatives and friends were present to witness the ceremony which was performed at 6 o'clock p. m., Wednesday, Nov. 24th, 1909. Rev. McKibben officiating.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding supper was served to all present.

The bride and groom have lived in this community nearly all their lives and have been very highly esteemed. They both are of very excellent families. The bride is a graduate of Haviland Academy and also took a business course at the Hutchinson Business College. For several months she was in the employ of the Anderson General Merchandise store at Wellsford and was highly appreciated. She is a beautiful and very attractive young lady of amiable disposition and strength of character.

Mr. Starkey, while having received a business education, prefers farming and will reside on the old home place East of Wellsford and will enjoy the beautiful new home that has recently been built. He is a strong, pure young man and is worthy of the confidence and esteem by which he is held by all who knew him.

The wedding was a time of joy and good fellowship in which family relations were bleated in a pleasing and appreciative manner.

The young couple received many beautiful presents and were remembered by friends who were unable to be there as well as those present. They have the best wishes of their many friends.

WEALTHY GIRL KIDNAPED ON WAY TO CHURCH

BARBER SAW TWO WOMEN
PLACE GIRL IN WAGON
AND DRIVE AWAY

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 9.—Alma daughter of Frederic Kelner, general solicitor for the Frank Fehr Brewing Company, left her home, 507 East Broadway, at about 9:45 o'clock yesterday morning to attend high mass at St. John's church, at Clay and Walnut streets, and up till a late hour last night she had not returned. The Police Department was notified after the family had given up all hope of the child returning home, and every patrolman and detective on the force was instructed to join in the search. Besides these more than two dozen friends of the family were searching streets and alleys in the hope that she might be found, but not even the slightest clue could be obtained and many are of the opinion that she has been kidnaped. The parents are certain she was kidnaped.

George Tenard, a barber, saw two women place some little girl in a wagon at Jackson and Broadway yesterday and drive away. It is believed to have been the Kelner child.

All detectives and police of the city are working on the case. All ferries, trains, suburban lines are being watched.

William Augustus, a postman, saw Alma on Hancock and Gray streets at 9:45 yesterday, and she was going north; never reached the church, where she had started to mass, on Clay and Walnut streets. Presence of a heavily veiled woman at child's grandmother's, Mrs. Kellner, 310 East Broadway yesterday has not yet been explained. The parents who are wealthy, are prostrated.

IN MEMORIAM.

Nettie Mitchell Moore was born April, 1878, and died November 22, 1909. She was married March 20, 1907, and in the same year professed faith in Christ and became a consistent member of the Clay street M. E. church South, Henderson, Ky.

When the tired pilgrim of mature age crosses the boundary of time into a glorious eternity, we think the rest must be inexpressibly sweet after having borne the burden and toil of the day until the eventide.

But when we think of Nettie passing away in the joyous springtime of her youth, like a flower that bloomed in the morning and withered ere its petals had been touched by eve's declining shades—when we think of the happy home, the faithful husband and the bright anticipations of the future, we are led to know that "God's ways are not our ways," and that sometime we shall understand. He "holds the keys of death," and since she, in her last days, expressed such peaceful resignation to His will, we may well believe that the flower has only been transplanted into the paradise of God, where henceforth it may safely dwell in fadeless bloom.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. M. E. Miller at Satem, in the presence of a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends. Here were assembled many former associates and schoolmates to pay the last sad tribute of respect to the departed, to think loving thoughts of the sunny, kind-hearted companion of other days, to drop a tear of sympathy for the bereaved and of pity for her early death.

If the people were as ready to give the poor devil of an Editor the dollar for his paper as they are to condemn him if he should fail to publish free just even one birth, one death, one obituary or card of thank, all the Weddings, the tobacco tidings, what the Society of Equity, Farmers' Union, the Stemming District Association, lodges, churches and preachers are doing, saying nothing about taking care of all the graveyard notices and the space expected by Uncle Sam for recuperating his army, poor fellows, together with numberless other things, there would be cheer and comfort around his fire on Christmas morning as well as your own. Perhaps his little wife would look as happy and sweet as your own in her neat modest dress and the faces of the sweet children. God bless them, wou'd be wretched in happy smile, and could repeat for you,

"Away in the manger
No crib for his bed."

The little Lord Jesus
Lay down His sweet head,
A star in the sky
Looked down where he lay

The little Lord Jesus
Asleep in the hay."

And the poor father could go to church in a decent suit of clothes without having to buy one leg of his trousers at a time, coming back to as happy home where the queen of all the earth to him, had in waiting for him and his happy little flocks, just such a meal as can be enjoyed but once a year.

When a man came in the other day with an article of material benefit to the writer and those concerned, asking if we charged any thing for it we, in our desperation said no, of course not. Everything free from Genesis to Revelations and Jerusalem to Maine save county commissioner notices and Fiscal Court statements. So realizing that it takes a whole lot of money to run a good county newspaper walk in the first time you go to town and hand in a dollar and quit borrowing your neighbor's paper and even then criticizing it if it does not suit you.

Does advertising pay? For answer, we will say that everywhere, the best business men advertise. And surely it pays or they would not do it.

One of the most thrifty firms in the State is the Sturgis Dry Goods Company at Sturgis, Ky., owned by C. T. Wallace and Tom Holt, two men who, having started poor, owe their success to liberal advertising. In nearly every issue of their town paper, the News Democrat, they have from one to two pages, and every time you go in their store you will find it full of anxious buyers. They are now giving away a fine piano and the last issue of the paper devoted one page alone to the picture of the box in which this fine instrument was shipped.

Go there any day in the week and you will find men, women and whole families, from Crittenden, Webster and all parts of Union county taking advantage of the good bargains advertised. Certainly this is proof enough that advertising pays. Then too, to make it pay the better they keep every article they advertise and sell it at the price advertised—in every instance "making good what they say."

Ask them if advertising pays. I have charged them $30.00 for a page ad two weeks and $20.00 for bills of a ten days sale and have seen them take over the counter in a single day, more than one thousand dollars, three per cent of one day's sales paying for the advertising.

It is twenty miles from Marion to Sturgis and twenty miles from Sturgis to Marion, and it is but seven days from Christmas to New year while from New Year to Christmas there are 358 days. See, Mrs. Mary G. Greanlea, of Los Angeles, Cal., sends answer to the Hardin & Miller piano puzzle recently printed in the Record-Pres. These pianos are sold here by Yates Bros. Surely this shows that advertising pays.

The Court of Appeals has decided that James H. Parrish must serve five years in the penitentiary for wrecking the Owensboro Savings Bank and Trust Company.

Read well, the various ads in the Record-Pres this week and next and profit by it. The man who advertises deserves your patronage.

President Taft will shortly visit Louisville.

A little child was drowned in a horse trough the other day while the father was attending the funeral of its mother.

The CIII House for 1910.

I am still in the hotel business in Marion for the New Year, at the place where I am now located. I have a host of customers I am very proud of—the reliable farmers of Crittenden, Livingston, Caldwell, Lion, Webster and Union counties, also a nice mineral and commercial patronage.

Call and see me when in Marion. I am the same congenial hostess I have been for the past 11 years. My beds are not surpassed, and my table is furnished with the best the marked affords. I certainly appreciate your liberal patronage and will welcome you at any time. Thanking you for future custom, I am

A Much Enjoyed Event.

Delightful refreshments of cream and cake were served.

Miss Sutherland proved herself a very charming hostess, and the afternoon was very much enjoyed by all those present.

Birthday Celebration.

On last Sunday, the 12th, the seventy-third anniversary of Mr. G. G. Hammond's birthday was celebrated in a way and manner long to be remembered by all present. The affair was planned by his good wife who, aided by the children in St. Louis, Evansville and Marion, gave this great old man the surprise of his life, as he knew nothing of what was to take place until the train brought the visitors and they were deposited despite the inclemency of the weather, in two bus loads at the home of dear old father and mother. All that Mr. Hammond did know was that he had, for several weeks been fattening as fine a 'possum as was ever caught out of Crittenden woods, that he expected his wife to prepare for what turned out to be a great feast day. All the boys and their wives, came loaded with everything nice that man or woman's mind could conceive of, oysters, asparagus, celery, lettuce, a variety of grapes, nuts, candies etc., aside from a nice suit of clothes and overcoat for father and nice dress for mother. It was a happy occasion and a happy lot of children and grand children that made it.

The children were:

Mrs. C. O. Shanklin, of East St. Louis; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Johnson and children, Mrs. James Loftus and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hammond and Luke Hammond, all of Evansville and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Young and Harry Hammond, of Marion. The only visitors were Miss Gertrude Gantner, of Evansville, and Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Calmes.

The long table groaned under a load of every good thing to eat known to a good housewife.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammond can well feel proud of such children, every one of them, men and women were handsome and intelligent. Mrs. C. O. Shanklin is conducting a prosperous business in East St. Louis, while each of the children in Evansville are either in business or holding prominent positions.

Surely it is consoling to this grand old couple to know, that in their old age, they are so loved by their children.

May they live to see many more such birthdays.

WOOL GROWERS OF EACH COUNTY

their respective counties at 1 o'clock p. m. Saturday, December 18th 1909 and elect a County Board of Control consisting of five growers. These should be from each magisterial district, as far as possible. One of these should at the same time be elected as a delegate to represent his county at the State meeting which is hereby called to meet at the State Fair offices, room 320 Paul Jones Building, Louisville, Ky., Tuesday, December, 21, at 1 o'clock p. m., at which time and place a permanent organization will be formed, and all steps taken necessary to be ready for active pooling January 1, next.

It is to the interest of every grower in the State to aid in this movement and all are cordially invited to become members thereof. See that your neighbors attend the county meetings along with you, and request your county paper to publish the call.

Daly-Marvel.

At 4 o'clock p. m., at the residence of Hiram Ford, Mr. B. G. Marvel and Miss Kate Daly were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony, Rev. U. G. Hughes officiating.

Mr. Marvel is an enterprising farmer of Crooked Creek.

Miss Daly is from Hampton, Livingston county, and has the appearance of being a fine young lady possessing all the qualities that go to make a noble woman.

May their lives be long and full of happiness. U. G. H.

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN.

Paris is Full of Them and Nearly All Use Parisian Sage.

In the beauty show at the metropolis two years ago Gold Medals were awarded to five different women.

To the most beautiful woman between 20 and 25; between 25 and 30; between 30 and 35; between 35 and 40 and between 40 and 45.

A society reporter who interviewed all five women in the interest of his papers, reported that all of them had beautiful hair, and that each of the five enthusiastically attributed her luxuriant hair to Parisian Sage.

Haynes & Taylor sell Parisian Sage for 50 cents a large bottle. They guarantee it to cure dandruff in two weeks; to stop falling hair and itching of the scalp. It makes any woman's hair beautiful, soft and luxuriant.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA

If You Have It Read This Letter.
Haynes & Taylor Guarantee
Mi-o-na.

I was taken last August with a severe stomach trouble. The doctor said it was nervous dyspepsia. He gave me medicine for that. I took his treatment four weeks, didn't feel any better at the end of four weeks than I did when I commenced taking his medicine. I took everything I heard of. The first day of December, 1908, I got a box of Mi-o-na tablets. I took them that afternoon and the next day, haven't had one bit of pain in my stomach since the 2nd of December. I took five boxes. Feel well now, sleep good—that is something I haven't done for a number of years.—Mrs. M. E. Maxfield, R. F. D. 9, Avoca, N. Y., June 9, 1909.

EVANSVILLE INDIANA

And Union county tobacco outside of the bounds described may, beginning Monday, go to Morganfield. No need for distributors' tickets in Union county now. The factory at Uniontown will not be open for the present. Due notice will be given of the opening of that factory.

WEBSTER COUNTY.

Deliveries to begin at Schree next Monday, the 13th, to the Imperial Co. On the same day John H. Hodge will receive at Slaughtersville. On the same day the Gallaher Company will be ready for tobacco at Providence. But the Imperial Company will not be ready to receive at Providence until the 27th of Dec.

And just here the committee directs me to say that while the Imperial will operate a factory at Nebo no Association tobacco will be delivered to that factory. The good members, therefore, who lives in Hopkins county contiguous to Nebo will deliver their tobacco to the Imperial Company at Providence. For that is the way the Hopkins county tobacco belonging to members contiguous to Nebo has been sold; and therefore the Association will have no grade at Nebo. The truth is the Imperial has set apart that factory wherein to handle tobacco brought from non-members in Hopkins county and around Providence. And it has been amicably arranged that the Imperial will, beginning the 27th, receive only Association tobacco at Providence. Good members around Providence and Nebo, I am sure, will approve of this arrangement, for thereby is friction, in so far as may be, precluded.

Despair and Despondency

No one but a woman can tell the story of the suffering, the despair, and the despondency endured by women who carry a daily burden of ill-health and pain because of disorders and derangements of the delicate and important organs that are distinctly feminine. The tortures so bravely endured completely upset the nerves if long continued.

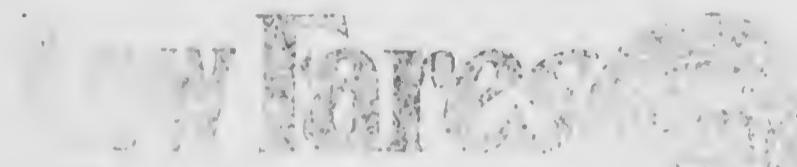

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive cure for weakness and disease of the feminine organism.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

It relaxes the tension, heals ulceration and soothes pain. It tones and builds up the nerves. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. Honest medicine dealers sell it, and have nothing on sale worth your money as "just as good."

Ask Your Physician. They probably know of some of its many cures.

If you want a book full of all about women's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 25c to Dr. Pierce or get it on mailing card, and we will send you a copy of his great book, "The Illustrated Common Diseases of Women," bound in leather covers, in hard and cloth-bound editions. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N.Y.

WILL LEDBETTER KILLED NEAR CLAY.

The Shooting Was Done by Brownie Cordell, a Negro, Who Made His Escape.

Clay, Ky., Dec. 13.—Will Ledbetter, a farmer, was shot and killed by Brownie Cordell, negro, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The shooting occurred at Blackwells Diamond mine between this town and Providence. The quarrel was over some whisky that Cordell was to have purchased for Ledbetter and four others.

Ledbetter claims to have given the negro $1.10 with which to purchase the liquor and that the whisky had not been produced. A quarrel ensued in which Cordell fired a shot into Ledbetter's stomach, the ball going through the bowels, from which he died shortly after being taken home.

The funeral took place Tuesday at his home. He leaves a wife and two children, the youngest being but a few days old.

Cordell made his escape and the officers are searching for him. A description of the murderer has been sent to all the towns and cities of this section.

Cordell's description is given as follows: Slick, black, negro, about 5 feet 7 inches in height; 19 years and weighs about 160 pounds. He has a straight scar between his eyes, which runs down to his nose. He wears a brown cap.

A NIGHT RIDER CONFESSES.

Union City, Tenn., Dec. 14.—John Ratcliff, a member of the band of night riders that killed Cap. Rankin turned States evidence to-day and gave about the same version of the killing of Rankin as former witness.

Ratcliff was indicted a year ago but had denied all connection with the night riders or knowledge of the murder until to-day, although he had been promised immunity during the former trial if he would testify for the State.

HON. A. O. STANLEY FEELS CONFIDENT

Of Securing a Two Million Dollar Appropriation For Dam at Henderson.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Have it on good authority that the pending river and harbor bill will carry appropriations for a number of movable dams in the Ohio river. Strong pressure is being brought to bear to secure these improvements on the Upper Ohio.

Have just secured hearing for the Henderson dam before the River and Harbor committee January 18, 1910, at which hearing friends of the lower Ohio will be heard. A large delegation from Evansville will be on hand. Hon. Vance, President, and Hon. F. B. Posey, Vice President of the Ohio Valley Improvement association, will attend this hearing.

Henderson is more vitally interested than any other city and should send a strong delegation to Washington on that occasion. I am making every effort to assure favorable consideration of bill introduced by myself for the erection of this dam just below Henderson, costing over two millions dollars.
